

Cosmic Cat Cards and Guide Book

Randy Crutcher and Barb Horn knew as soon as their Divine Dog Wisdom Cards and Guidebook was released they would be creating a cat wisdom deck. Divine Dog Wisdom Cards and Guidebook won the 2018 Coalition of Visionary Resources Product of the Year at the International New Age Trade show and is in its 2nd Edition printing. Friends, distributors, store owners all kept asking “when is the cat deck coming? You know there are more cat lovers than dog lovers out there.” And they may be right as such, the Cosmic Cat Wisdom Cards and Guidebook were published in 2019.

Cats are legendary, loving and extraordinarily wise. Few of us experience the kind of total presence, awareness, self-nurturing and enjoyment of life that cats daily demonstrate. Cats are unapologetically themselves. And like dogs, are our best friends. Best friends love us unconditionally. They see us when we can't see ourselves. Cats have a life of their own, yet depend on humans for many of their needs. In return, humans seek their warmth, animal intimacy and spontaneous engagement in a shared world.

Cats teach us many things as they reflect back to us the qualities of independence, courage, caution, seeming indifference, and the right (not privilege) to be taken care of. Through cats we learn about how these unique and special beings navigate and negotiate relationships of all kinds; with us, their own, and other species. We see what is tasty and distasteful, preferred or disdained, even as we try unsuccessfully to overlay our preferences on them. We are attracted to the vulnerability and cuteness of kittens that can bring out our own sense of vulnerability and sometimes adorability. The predatory nature of cats can remind us of how our own species managed in the tree of life to get to our current position, precarious though it may seem at times.

Cosmic Cat Wisdom Cards are unlike any wisdom deck on the market. Sixty-unique cards are each a work of art portraying a personal growth idea such as Bliss, Courage, Nurture, Persistence, Conundrum and Pounce and more. The cards are designed to inspire and delight you while offering meaningful guidance for your day and your life. The art on each card will make you feel like a dog is in the room with you and even remind you of dogs you know or knew. This deck includes energies we experience that are challenging but through the eyes of a cat, they are teachers. The guide book contains instructions on how to use the deck, more inquiries under “If you pounced on this card today” and “Another Thought to Stalk”. The cards and box are high quality and durable.

Cosmic Cat Wisdom Decks are being used by therapists, families, teachers, human resource staff, teams, project managers, speakers, workshop leaders, groomers, veterinarians and many others. The cards are so inviting and engaging they attract individuals who have never used wisdom cards. In addition to using them for guidance, individuals are using them, in a waiting areas, as a giveaway or prize or combining with other products or offers.

Enlighten Up (enlightenup.biz) provides products and services to delight, inspire and help you lead your best life, is dedicated to giving back. The authors donate a percentage of sales to Kitten Associates National Rescue organization, have a generous “Support a Rescue Shelter” where cards are used to support this important work, a Memorial Garden you can remember beloved pets who have crossed over the rainbow bridge, consultations with the authors and other resources related to animal communication, healing and information.
