Cross country skiing one winter day with friends and dogs, Barb Horn and Randy Crutcher were enjoying how dogs pursue what they want. Mazy, a beagle, never questioned or noticed the snow was much deeper than her height, she just followed her nose. Up and down steep slopes, bounding through deep store easily covering twice the distances as us skiers.

That day we marveled at their wisdom and decided to create a wisdom card deck to share their wisdom with others. Two years later the Divine Dog Wisdom Cards and Guidebook hit the world, won the 2018 Coalition of Visionary Resources Product of the Year at the International New Age Trade show and is in its 2nd Edition printing.

Dogs are our best friends. Best friends love us unconditionally. They see us when we can't see ourselves. They value us when we're unable to do that for ourselves. They value us whether we are happy, sad, or mad, and they allow us to feel exactly what we feel. They don't care what we wear, drive, or live in, what our job is; or how much money we have in the bank. They just love. They show up, love and accept all of who we are. And through a single look, gesture or act, dogs can make us laugh, shift our perspective, mirror our pain and deepest desires, and allow us to make their wisdom into our very souls.

Dogs have an inherent, what we call divine, and wisdom. Part of that wisdom is that no matter how we treat them, they still love us in their role of companion, guardian or angel for us.
